2022 Mini-Conference, ASA CHS Section
Co-Sponsored by the Department of Sociology at the University of Southern California, Los Angeles
Website: www.chs.asa-comparative-historical.org/chs-minicon-2022
Registration: https://forms.gle/j5um1tEvEgifpCpZ7

USC Taper Hall
August 5th, 2022

8:30–8:45 AM Welcome/ Introduction

8:50–10:20 AM Panel 1: Targeted Medicine: Race, Disease, and Death in the US and Brazil THH 202
1. Aja Antoine, “Racial Inequality in Tuberculosis Mortality in Atlanta, Georgia, 1900-1940.” University of California, Berkley.
2. Surbhi Shrivastava, “From home to the hospital: Medicalization of childbirth among black mothers in nineteenth-century Brazil.” Emory University.

4. Ricarda Hammer, “Decolonization beyond Political Independence: Departmentalization, the Politics of Recognition, and Anticolonial Imaginaries from Martinique.” University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

12–1:30 PM Lunch

CONCURRENT PANELS - ROOMS THH 202 & THH 208

1:30–3:00 PM Panel 3: Erasures and Eruptions: Processes of Denial and Persistence THH 202

1:30–3:00 PM Panel 4: Categories in Motion: Contested Trajectories and Border Crossings THH 208

3. Luisa Farah Schwartzman and Anne Pollock, “Drugs, race, colonialism and the making of the modern world.” University of Toronto & King’s College London.

3:00–3:30 PM Coffee Break

3:30–5:30 PM Plenary: Pathways to Knowledge in CHS THH 202

6:00 PM Drinks at TBD