We're excited to host the 2022 ASA Comparative Historical Section's Mini-Conference, to take place Friday August 5, 2022. Please find below additional logistical details on the day's event.

Registration: Registration is now closed. If you would like to be placed on the waitlist please email us at chsminiconference2022@gmail.com and we will let you know as soon as we know if spots are available.

COVID Logistics: Due to the increased number of COVID cases and in line with LA city and county guidelines we will be requiring all guests to wear a mask during the event. While food will be served we encourage people to take their food outside so as to minimize mask removal indoors.

Please also be prepared to show proof of COVID vaccination upon request.

Location: All panel sessions will be in Taper Hall on the University of Southern California-Dornsife campus. We have two rooms reserved (THH 202 & 208) but most events will take place in the larger auditorium THH 202.

The USC Campus is a short train ride away from the LA Convention Center/JW Marriott where the main ASA Conference is being held.

Attendance: We encourage people to attend the entire day's events if possible. The plenary session at the end of the day will open into a Town Hall meeting for collective reflection on the day's conversations. This is an opportunity for us to think hard about new paths forward for the discipline.

Optional Drinks: We invite all participants—panelists and audience alike—to continue the conversation over drinks and food after the event. This informal gathering will take place after the mini-conference at 6PM and we will gather at:

Prank Bar
1100 S Hope St
Los Angeles, CA 90015

Catering: We are able to provide lunch for registered participants in addition to coffee and tea. Please note we will not be providing breakfast food.
